

Bealer, W. Richard
Francis
Donald

Brothers of Point Phillips Advance

Above left to right are W. Richard Bealer, Seaman 1/c, a member of the Coast Guards; Mess Sergeant Francis Bealer, with a Tank Battalion; Donald Bealer, C.M.M., aboard a destroyer. They are the sons of Mrs. C. E. Bealer, Old Chubbsville House, Point Phillips. Richard, a graduate of Easton High School, enlisted November 12, 1942 and at the present time is stationed at Tuckerton, N. J. Francis who has been in the service for five years is stationed at Fort Knox, Kentucky. These two brothers have not seen each other for five years, both having enlisted before Pearl Harbor. Donald was graduated from Easton High School and several months ago received the Purple Heart for having been wounded in the Solomons.

May 27, 1944