

Votral, Steve

Sgt. Steve Votral
Expected On Furlough

JAN 16 1945

Staff Sergeant Steve Votral, member of one of Uncle Sam's paratroop units that saw plenty of action against the Japs, will arrive in Bethlehem this evening on a well earned furlough. For the next 30 days he will be at home with members of his family at 1440 Phillips Street.

He spent the past 27 months engaging the enemy, and during that time participated in a number of invasions of South Pacific islands. He was granted his furlough following the invasion of Leyte.
