

Dwyer, John G.
Owen.

PROMOTED BY U. S. ARMY—John G. Dwyer, left, and Owen V. Dwyer, right, grandsons of Mrs. Margaret Dwyer, 701 West Broad Street, recently received promotions by their respective branches of U. S. Army service. John, 26, is now a first lieutenant with a training battalion stationed at Fort Lewis, Wash. He is a graduate of SS. Simon and Jude Parochial School, Bethlehem Catholic High and Lehigh University, class of 1937, in mechanical engineering. He enlisted in 1941, received a second lieutenant's commission at the time. Owen, who is 24, has seen three years of army service, working his way up from buck private to his present rating of staff sergeant. He is a bombardier with the Air Corps and is stationed at the 21st Air School Squadron, Lowry Field, Denver, Colo. He was recently married. He, too, is a graduate of SS. Simon and Jude School. He graduated, also, at Rockville Center, L. I., High School and attended St. John's College, Brooklyn, N. Y. The boys are sons of John A. Dwyer, employe of the Bethlehem Steel Company in its New York offices. They at one time resided here with their grandmother.
