

Bobick, Stephen

Spent Furlough Here

JUN 30 1943

Staff Sergeant and Mrs. Stephen Bobick, after spending a furlough with his mother, Mrs. Vilma Bobick, widow of George Bobick, 1216 Russell Avenue, and Mrs. Bobick's parents at Palmerton, have returned to the army air field at Columbus, Miss., where he is chief engineering clerk on a hangar line.

Sergeant Bobick is a graduate of Fountain Hill High School, 1938. He enlisted December 29, 1941, and entered the service at Fort Meade. From there he was sent to the replacement center at Jefferson Barracks, Mo., for basic training. For two and a half months he attended school at Denver, Colo., after which he was sent to Columbus, Miss. Mrs. Bobick is the former Cleo B. Hammel, of Palmerton.

Jun 30, 1943