

Grimm Jr., George P.

PASSES ARMY EXAMINATION—
Private First Class George P. Grimm, Jr., who was inducted into the service of the U. S. Army April 14, at Wilkes-Barre, recently passed his gunner's examination at the Savannah Army Air Base, Savannah, Georgia. He took his preliminary training for this branch of the service at the Will Rogers Airport, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. Prior to entering the service he had been employed as steward at the Spring Valley Inn, near Hellertown, where he also resided. 7-18-1942

July 18, 1942