

Novak, Andrew G.

Parents Learn Andrew Novak Dies in Action

Private Andrew G. Novak was killed in action August 4, in France, according to a telegram from the War Department received by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Novak, 561 Ryan Street. He was born in Bethlehem October

PVT. ANDREW G. NOVAK

30, 1917, and attended St. Cyril and Methodius School, and Broughal High School. He worked at the Bethlehem Steel Company before induction April 17, 1941. He spent ten months overseas.

Private Novak was a member of St. Cyril and Methodius Church, the Jednota Society, and Tammany Democratic Club.

He is survived by his parents and two brothers, John at home, and Joseph, 514 Thomas Street.

September 11, 1944