

Weaver Jr, Eli

Promoted

AUG 8 1944

Eli Weaver Jr., wearing the wings of the U. S. Air Corps, and recently advanced to the rank of corporal, is spending a seven-day furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eli Weaver, at Wydnor.

He received the wings on Wednesday, July 26, after completing a prescribed course in a gunnery school at Ft. Myer, Florida.

He joined Uncle Sam's forces on February 6, 1943, while a student at Liberty High School. He was sent to Camp McKail, N. C., where he was assigned to an artillery unit, and thence to Miami for advanced training before entering the gunnery school at Ft. Myer.

At the termination of his furlough, he will report to Plant Park, Florida, for assignment.
