MARGUERITE NEARING
BRIDE OF JOHN P. RICE

NEW 1 1942
Allentown Girl Wed to Former Beth-lehemite in Elkton.

Marguerite M. Nearing, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Homer C. Nearing, 1023 Walnut Street, Allentown, and John P. Rice, son of Mrs. Edwin Derr, 124 South Law Street, Allentown, formerly of this city were married last Friday at 6:15 p. m. at Elkton, Md. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Warren Albinson, pastor of Trinity Episcopal Church.

The bride wore a dress of blue wool with maroon accessories, and her attendant, Mrs. Peters, wore seafoam green with brown accessories.

After the ceremony, the couple, along with Mr. and Mrs. Warren J. Peters, at whose wedding last Wednesday they had been attendants, proceeded to Wilmington, Del., for a wedding trip.

Native of Allentown, Mrs. Rice was graduated from Allentown High School in 1940 and has been a junior at Cedar Crest College, majoring in English. Mr. Rice, born in Bethlehem, attended the Miami, Fla., High School and was graduated from Perkiomen Prep School after which he entered Lehigh, taking up civil engineering. At the end of his sophomore year, he was sworn into the U. S. Army Air Force, and is at present awaiting a call to service. In the interim, he is employed as a chemist by the Bethlehem Steel Company. He was employed there while a student at Lehigh.
