

Bankhard, Virginia

WAC Turn Carpenters in New Guinea

AUG 12 1944

WAC Pfc. Virginia Bankhard, left, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Bankhard of 59 East North Street and WAC Pvt. Charlotte Bursten of New York City have become adept at fashioning helpful bits of furniture for their barracks from discarded packing cases and of lumber. They are members of a WAC detachment stationed somewhere in New Guinea. Pfc. Bankhard, enlisted May, 1943, and received her basic training at Daytona Beach, Fla., later being transferred for further training to Camp Shelby, Miss., and Fort Oglethorpe, Ga. Four months ago she left for Australia and for the past two and one-half months has been in the Postal Department at New Guinea. (Official WAC Photo)
