T/Sgt. McNamara Liberated From Nazi Prison Camp

Mrs. Robert E. McNamara, 430 Birkel Avenue, received word that her son, T/Sgt. John McNamara, who was held a prisoner by the German government for the past seven months, was liberated. His wife, the former Anne Sinclair, 51 East Ettwein Street, received the news through the Red Cross last night.

Overseas for 20 months, Sgt. McNamara was fighting with an infantry division of the First Army when he was taken prisoner. A graduate of Liberty High school, he was employed by the Bethlehem Steel Company when he entered the service four years ago.
