

Clewell, William T.
Norman

William T. Clewell received his first stripe while serving with the Glider Infantry in France. His wife, Mrs. Evelyn Clewell, 813 North New Street, was informed.

Overseas since November, 1944, Pfc. Clewell entered the service in June of the same year. He was sent to Georgia to complete his Glider training. He attended Bethlehem High School and is a former employe of the Bethlehem Steel Company. His brother, T-Sgt. Norman Clewell, is serving aboard a hospital ship with the Medical Corps.
