

Greenleaf, Mary L.

Springtown SPAR Enjoys Service Duties

Mary Lispeth Greenleaf, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Greenleaf, of Springtown, now in the Coast Guard service, learned about the SPARS from a Coast Guardsman.

Comdr. Frederick Eastman, USCG, now at the U. S. Coast Guard Academy, New London, Conn., first encouraged her to enlist, and is "proud of her" as a member of his service. Seaman Greenleaf herself is pretty happy about being a SPAR. "I like it all," she says, "the marching and drilling, standing watch as a mate of the deck, classes and studying, and about all the girls I'm with here."

Seaman Greenleaf is attending Storekeeper School in Palm Beach, Fla.

November 23, 1943