

Duby, Thomas H.

LIEUT. THOMAS H. DUBY
PROMOTED TO CAPTAIN

Was Recent Instructor in ROTC
Training at Lehigh University.

New Cumberland, Pa., Dec. 17 (INS)—The promotion to captain of First Lieut. Thomas H. DUBY, of Gettysburg, one of the pioneer group that organized the first American tank corps in France under Major General George S. Patton, Jr., now head of the U. S. armed forces in North Africa, was announced today by Lt. Col. William A. Fulmer, commander of the New Cumberland army reception center.

Captain DUBY has served 27 years in the army and is the post's personnel officer and agent finance officer.

He was an instructor in R. O. T. C. training at Lehigh University until he was sent to the reception center.

1942

December 17, 1942