

Lehigh refines reporting of COVID cases, 63 active off-campus

The Bethlehem Gadfly coronavirus, Lehigh University October 15, 2020

 Latest in a series of posts on the coronavirus

Lehigh University COVID-19 Information Center

Lehigh University COVID-19 dashboard

Lehigh Brown and White Oct. 14: Lehigh's COVID-19 dashboard is now reporting active and cumulative cases. There is currently 26 active cases among students living on-campus and 63 active cases among students living off-campus, for a total of 89 active cases. There has been 60 cumulative positive cases among students living on-campus and 129 cumulative cases off-campus for a total of 189 cases since Aug. 7.

Active Cases
26 Active cases among students living in residence halls at the time of the positive test	63 Active cases among students living off campus in the Bethlehem area

Active cases are individuals who have tested positive for COVID-19 and have not yet been cleared to end isolation.

Cumulative Positive Cases (since Aug 7th)
60 Positive cases among students living in residence halls at the time of the positive test	129 Positive cases among students living off campus in the Bethlehem area

Of the 189 positive cases, 60 students tested positive as a result of initial or ongoing surveillance testing, 74 tested positive after undergoing testing conducted by the Lehigh Health and Wellness Center, and 55 were reported from tests administered elsewhere (see "Additional Reported Information").

Positive test results in the Bethlehem Area (Off Campus, On Campus)
By week reported.

