

Henriques, Belarmino

Receives Stripe

Mr. and Mrs. John Henriques, of 23 Princeton Avenue, have just received word that their youngest son, Belarmino, has been promoted to a first class private. He was inducted into the Army, February 25, 1943, and is stationed at Camp Swift, Texas, with the army engineers. The young soldier, who is 19, has two brothers in the service, Pfc. Charles, 26, is stationed at Camp Edwards, Mass., with an anti-aircraft batallion, and Pvt. Armondo, 20, is stationed at Salt Lake City, Utah. He is in the air corps and is now a military student at the clerical school at Salt Lake City.
