

Kolar, Joseph M.

Local Soldier
Aids In Capture
Of Two Nazis

Private Joseph M. Kolar, 63 East Broad Street, with the aid of another Ninth Army infantryman, captured two Nazi prisoners and rode them back to the Yank lines on the hood of his jeep, according to information received by his wife, the former Marge Martin of Hellertown.

Overseas since November 1944, Pvt. Kolar trained at Fort Bragg, N. C.; Camp Breckenridge, Ky.; Fort Sill, Okla., and Fort George Meade, Md. He is a former employe of the Bethlehem Steel Company.

March 23, 1945