Bethlehem WAC
Receives Good Conduct Medal

31 1944

AN EIGHTH AAF BOMBARDMENT DIVISION HEADQUARTERS, England—Four members of the Women's Army Corps from southeastern Pennsylvania, Sergeant Elsie J. Provence, of Philadelphia; Sergeant Hilda W. Burns, Harrisburg; Technician Fifth Grade Thelma E. Clouse, Bethlehem, and Gladys M. Kress of Hanover each have been awarded the Army Good Conduct Medal. All four held important positions at this headquarters where Eighth AAF B-17 Flying Fortresses and B-24 Liberator bombing attacks on German industrial targets and current invasion air support operations are planned and studied.

Miss Clouse, who holds a rank equivalent to that of corporal, lived at 83 West Goepf Street, Bethlehem. A stenographer before entering the WAC in December, 1942, she is a teletypist in the signals section at this headquarters.
