

Svirzovsky, William

Promoted

Mr. and Mrs. John Svirzovsky, 426 First Terrace Street, received word of the promotion of their son, William J. Svirzovsky, to Private First Class. Svirzovsky enlisted May 10, 1943, and received his basic training at Camp Croft, South Carolina, where he volunteered for overseas duty. From here he was sent to Fort Meade, Md., and shipped out to France, January, 1944. Before his induction he was employed by the Gorham Wholesale Dealers.
