

Lockey, Joseph S.

Joseph Lockey Dies In Action With Marines

Joseph Stephen Lockey, a graduate of Liberty High School and a member of the United States Marine Corps, has been killed in action, according to word received here by members of his family.

The War Department's message to his wife stated that full information concerning his death would be forwarded in a letter, which the family is now awaiting. It is understood the tragedy occurred in the African war theater.

JOSEPH S. LOCKEY

Lockey is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen F. Lockey and had resided with his parents, 1251½ East Fourth st. He was well known locally.

After graduating from Liberty High School he attended Fordham University and graduated from that institution last June. He enlisted in the Marine Corps soon after graduation.

APR 2 1943

April 2, 1943