

Happel, Kenneth O.

Stockertown Soldier
Member of Patton's
Famed Tank-Busters

JAN 18 1945
Sergeant Kenneth O. Happel, of Main Street, Stockertown, is a member of the hard-hitting 773rd Tank Destroyer Battalion, which has destroyed more German tanks than any other tank destroyer battalion in Lieutenant General Patton's Army. In the muck and darkness, these tank destroyers smash through thickets of trees and clinging mud to lead the division in driving the Germans from the forest and winning the praise of the commanding general.
