Dorothy E. Apgar, Pfc. Kenne
Trumbore Married Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Apgar, 308 East Broad Street, announce the marriage of their daughter, Dorothy Ellen Apgar, to Pfc. Kenneth M. Trumbore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Trumbore, 341 Sixth Avenue, which took place on Monday at 8 p. m. in the West Side Moravian Church. Rev. John S. Groenfeldt officiated.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. There were no attendants. The bride wore a soldier blue velvet dress with matching accessories, and a corsage of Talisman roses.

A reception at the home of the bridegroom followed the ceremony. Mrs. Trumbore is a graduate of Bethlehem High School and is manager of Hart's Millinery Store, Allentown. Pfc. Trumbore is a graduate of Liberty High School and Moravian College for Men. He is stationed in San Diego, Cal., and is home on a 15-day furlough. Mrs. Trumbore will remain at her home for the duration of the war.
