Joseph Molnar, TM2/C,
Home for Navy Day
After Pacific Service 1945

Joseph F. Molnar, torpedoman's mate second class, USNR, 1209 Mechanic Street, arrived recently in New York Harbor aboard the USS Foote for participation in the Navy Day celebrations, "back home" after 33 months of Pacific destroyer duty which carried him through fighting campaigns from Casablanca to the Solomons, from Leyte to Okinawa.

Torpedoman Molnar has served on the Foote since December 22, 1942. He is the husband of Helen Molnar, 1209 Buchanan Street.
