

Cunningham, Francis V.

Sgt. F. V. Cunningham Honorably Discharged

Sgt. Francis V. Cunningham, husband of Mrs. Anne Marie Cunningham, 613 Christian Street, was honorably discharged from the Army at the separation center at Patterson Field, Ohio.

Oct 31 '45
Sgt. Cunningham's last assignment was as a dispatcher for the Air Transport Command at the Ohio field. He entered the service July 30, 1942, at Ft. Meade, Md., and completed his basic training at Keesler Field, Miss. He completed his advanced training at Engineering and Operations Technical School, Fort Logan, Colo.

The sergeant served overseas from February 3, 1943, to April 15, 1945, in Fairbanks, Alaska. He is a former Bethlehem Steel Company employe.

October 3, 1945