

Corriere, Joseph N.

Dr. Corriere Receives Army Commission

AUG 18 1943

Dr. Joseph N. Corriere, Easton, a member of the adjunct staff of the Division of Urology at St. Luke's Hospital, this city, and chief urologist at the Easton Hospital, has been commissioned a first lieutenant in the Army Medical Corps and will leave Friday to report for active duty at Augusta, Ga.

He has also been a member of the urology staff, Graduate Hospital, Philadelphia; an instructor in urology at the Graduate School of the University of Pennsylvania; a fellow of the American College of Surgeons; a member of the Philadelphia Urological Society and of the Mid-Atlantic section of the American Urological Association. The new officer received his B. S. from Lafayette College and his M. D. from Loyola University, Chicago. Mrs. Corriere and their three children will remain in Easton for the present.

August 18, 1943