

Moser, Norman J.

Serving in California

Mrs. Norman Moser, 1990 Brookside Drive, has received word that her husband, Private First Class Norman L. Moser is now stationed with an ordnance training battalion at Camp Santa Anita, Arcadia, Cal.

Pfc. Moser, who was employed at the Bethlehem Steel Company, served three years and eight months with Battery C, 213th Coast Artillery, but was left behind along with other married members when the unit was federalized. He enlisted December 15, 1942, and was stationed at New Cumberland Reception Center until just recently when he was promoted to private first class and transferred.

Mrs. Moser is the former Mary Ford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ford, 415 Adams Street. Private and Mrs. Ford are the parents of a daughter, Virginia May Ford.
