

Keegan, Ann, Mary

Two Area WACS Given Discharges

Discharged yesterday from the Women's Army Corps at Fort Dix, N. J., were T/5 Dorothy E. Smith, 26, from this city, and T/4 Ann Mary Keegan, 27, of Quakertown.

T/4 Smith, daughter of Mrs. J. L. Smith, 453 Rubel St., was last stationed at Camp Atterbury, Ind., where she served as a medical technician. She holds the Good Conduct medal, WAAC, American Theater and the Victory ribbons. She intends to return to the Pennsylvania State School of Aeronautics. Her brother, Sgt. Arthur L. Smith is also in the service.

T/4 Keegan is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew A. Keegan, 818 West Broad St., Quakertown. She wears the WAAC ribbon, Good Conduct, American Theater and Victory ribbons. A clerk-typist last stationed at Fort Myers, Va., she intends to return to her Army job in Washington, D. C. She has a sister recently discharged from the WAAC and two brothers serving in the Army and Navy.
