

Challinor, E. J.

Arrives Safely In Africa

FEB 7 1944
E. J. Challinor, a technical observer with the United States Army, has arrived safely in Africa according to word just received by his family here. He has been a technical observer for the past four months and this is the first word received from him since he left here following a short furlough from his duties at Camp McCoy, LaCrosse, Wis.

February 7, 1944