

In Same Squadron

FIFTEENTH AAF IN ITALY—Three Bethlehem sons are serving with the same bomber squadron at an airbase overseas. Cpl. Bruce L. Miller, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clair A. Miller, of 527 Wyandotte St.; S/Sgt. William W. Bond, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brunner, of 132 E. Union Street, and Pfc. George F. Searfoss, 23, son of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Searfoss of 816 Walton Street.

Miller, now an armorer, was graduated by Bethlehem High in 1942, entered the service in July of 1942, and has been overseas since February of 1944.

Bond, now a waist-gunner and aerial engineer in a Liberator Squadron, attended Bethlehem High, entered the service April 17, 1943, and has been overseas since November of 1944. He is a former employe of the Bethlehem Steel Co.

Searfoss, now a cook, a former student at Nitschmann Jr. High, entered the service in September of 1942, and has been overseas since February of 1944.