Bethlehem-born writer Hilda Doolittle — H. D. — (1886-1961) is the “Lehigh Valley’s most important literary figure.”

Live from IceHouse Tonight!

Radical Freedom: Poets on the Life and Work of H.D.

Join us September 8th at 7 PM as local poets celebrate the life and work of Bethlehem native Hilda Doolittle with a reading of H.D.’s poetry and their own. Featuring poets Nanette Smith, Sienna Mae Heath, Lynn Alexander, Katherine Falk, and Cleveland Wall—with an introduction by Jennie Gilrain. This program is brought to you through the generous support of the Lehigh Valley Engaged Humanities Consortium.

Performance will stream on the IceHouse Tonight Facebook page and on the IceHouse Tonight YouTube channel.

Live from IceHouse Tonight delivers local arts to your living room. Presenting a diverse selection of virtual performances, the series is part of the larger IceHouse Tonight series, which features over 100 events each year. The series is proudly sponsored by Fig Bethlehem.

Dear Finding H.D. participants,
The first year of Finding H.D., A Community Exploration of the Life and Work of Hilda Doolittle culminated with a new play by Mock Turtle Marionette Theater: “The Secret” premiered at Touchstone Theatre’s Festival UnBound in the fall of 2019.

“The Secret” was scheduled for a second run in April of 2020. Sadly, the spring run of our play was cancelled due to the pandemic.

The good news is that some of the related events featuring H.D. have become virtual...

Introducing Act 2: A Series of Performances by Local Artists Inspired by H.D.

Please enjoy Radical Freedom: Poets on the Life and Work of H.D.

Sincerely,
Jennie Gilrain

P.S. We hope you have enjoyed some of our “Finding H.D.” events—lectures, readings, nature walks, book talks—organized by Mock Turtle Marionette Theater, Bradbury Sullivan LGBT Community Center, Bethlehem Area Public Library and Lehigh University Department of English and the South Side Initiative. If you would like to be removed from this email list, please email Jennie Gilrain at jega@lehigh.edu.
