

Knapp, William L.

Report That Local Soldier Was Wounded
Now Held Erroneous

William L. Knapp, 130½ Graham Court, who received a War Department telegram February 3 stating that his son, Pfc. Lester C. Knapp was slightly wounded in Belgium January 12, received another official telegram yesterday saying the first report had been erroneous.

Pfc. Knapp, overseas for the past 21 months, is a member of the Paratroops with the Gilder Infantry. As far as is known, he is still in good health and is fighting on the front lines in Belgium.
