

Uhl, Leo W.

Commisisoned An Ensign

Leo W. Uhl, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Uhl, 822 Carlton Avenue, has been commissioned an ensign in the U. S. Naval Reserve. He took the oath Wednesday with one of the largest classes to graduate at the U. S. N. R. Midshipman's School in New York City upon completion of the 15-week V-7 training course. Exercises were held in the Riverside Church.

ENSIGN LEO W. UHL

The young officer is a graduate of Lehigh University and had been employed by the Bethlehem Steel Company prior to his enlistment.

February 20, 1943