

Novak, Frank

Capt. Frank Novak
Sent to Kearns, Utah

Captain Frank Novak, personnel officer at the Carlsbad (New Mexico) Army Air Field, has been transferred to Kearns, Utah.

Captain Novak recently attended Command and General Staff School at Fort Leavenworth, Kan., the top ranking army service school.

Captain Novak entered the army

as an enlisted man in 1937, receiving a commission January 1, 1941, in Hawaii. He has attended the Infantry School at Fort Benning, Ga., and also the Army Administrative School in Hawaii. During 1940-41 he was on recruiting duty at the customs house in Philadelphia. He is a former resident of Bethlehem.

August 21, 1943