

Affronti, Joseph L.

11 From Here Sign Up For Army Service

Announcement was made today by Lt. Thomas G. Brown, Commanding Officer of the U. S. Army Recruiting Station, Room 201, Post Office Building that eleven men from the Bethlehem area have been enlisted recently in the Regular Army for eighteen months, two and three year service periods.

Taking advantage of the January 31st. deadline, up to which men with previous service can retain their grades, obtain ninety-day furloughs and re-enlistment bonuses, Cpl. Charles G. Strohl, son of Charles L. Strohl, RFD 4, Bethlehem, re-enlisted for a three year period, in the Air Corps, and requested duty in the European Theater. Cpl. Strohl has had four years previous service in the Army, and intends to make it his career.

Other previous service men who re-enlisted are: William Maurer, 606 W. Lehigh Ave., Bethlehem, who has had eleven years service; Joseph M. Spisak, 750 Wood St., Bethlehem; and Thomas P. Potillo, 1472 E. Fifth St., who had four years service.

The following men signed up for their first enlistment: Joseph L. Affronti, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Affronti, 946 Delaware Ave., Bethlehem; Delbert P. Davis, 18, son of Price A. Davis, RFD 4, Bethlehem; Nevin R. Dunstan, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Allan D. Dunstan, 820 Fernwood St., Bethlehem; Stephen Hebor, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Hebor, 79 Clearfield St., Freemansburg; John P. Kamatz, 17, son of Mrs. Anna Kamatz, 513 E. Packer Ave., Bethlehem; Richard J. Kuka, 17, son of Mrs. Anna D. Kuka, 21 W. North St., Bethlehem, and Andrew M. Stofko, 18, son of Mrs. Elizabeth Sikora, 1103 Stanley Ave., Bethlehem.

Lt. Brown stated today that the Recruiting Office in Bethlehem would remain open until 9:00 PM on January 31st. so that all previous service men would have an opportunity to re-enlist and retain their benefits.

January 22, 1946