

Urchitz, Frank

Local Soldier Named To Indiantown Gap Exchange Committee

INDIANTOWN GAP, Pa.—S/Sgt. Frank Urchitz, husband of Mrs. Eleanor M. Urchitz, 158 Washington Avenue, Bethlehem, Pa., has been named to serve on the Indiantown Gap Exchange Committee, at the Indiantown Gap Military Reservation, Pa.

MAY 1 1945

The committee, a panel of 11 non-commissioned officers, will represent the enlisted man's point of view in the operation of Post Exchange branches at the reservation.

It will confer with the Post Exchange Council, a directorate of officers, on improvements in and additions to present exchange operations.

Sgt. Urchitz was inducted March 1941, and served overseas for 25 months in the North African theatre of operations. He is a recipient of the EAME service ribbon.
