

Clause, James H.

WINS SERGEANT STRIPES.

Cpl. James H. Clause, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Clause, of 511 Schaffer Street, Bethlehem, received the rating of sergeant at Barksdale Field, Louisiana, recently.

Sergeant Clause was a bank teller in the Union Bank and Trust Company before entering the Army last February. Since becoming a soldier he has been stationed at Ft. George Meade, Md.; Finance School, Ft. Benjamin Harrison, Indiana; Bowman Field, Kentucky, then to Barksdale where he has been on duty for the past four months. He is chief of travel accounts in the base finance department.

September 22, 1942