

Vargo, William

Two Local Men Get AAF Discharges After Three Years

T/Sgt. William Vargo, son of Mrs. Lydia Vargo, 1179 East Third Street, and Pfc. Edwin C. Heath, son of Mrs. Edwin J. Heath, 87 West Church Street, were honorably discharged at the Newark Separation Center after serving three years with the Army Air Force.

As an aerial engineer with the 15th Air Force, Sgt. Vargo served nine months in Italy, Germany, Czechoslovakia and Yugoslavia. He received the ETO Ribbon with five battle stars, the Air Medal with two clusters, the Unit Citation and the Good Conduct Medal.

Before entering the service, Sgt. Vargo studied Business Administration at Lehigh University. He plans to complete his interrupted education under the opportunities afforded by the G. I. Bill of Rights.

Pfc. Heath served as an ammunition handler with the 20th Air Force in the CBI Theater for 20 months. He wears the Asiatic-Pacific Ribbon with six battle stars and the Good Conduct Medal. Prior to entering the service, he was employed by the Kingsbury Ordnance Plant of Kingsbury, Ind.
