

Marsten, Richard O.

Local Girl Married To Capt. Marsten

In the Packer Memorial Chapel, Lehigh University Campus, on Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock Miss Helene Hollenback, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Hollenback, 240 Wall Street, became the bride of Captain Richard O. Marsten, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Marsten, 1324 Montrose Avenue. Dr. Claude G. Beardslee, performed the ceremony.

Mr. Hollenback gave his daughter in marriage. She was attired in a gown of ivory bridal satin with a fitted bodice with a bouffant skirt ending in a train. Her fingertip veil fell from a juliet cap of seed pearls and she carried a prayer book with a white orchid marker.

Mrs. George Lee Billheimer, sister of the bride, the matron of honor, wore a pastel pink gown of net with matching juliet cap and carried an old fashioned bouquet of fall flowers. Lieutenant Robert M. Shapiro, of Utica, N. Y., was the best man.

Dr. T. Edgar Shields presided at the organ console and played the traditional wedding music. Miss Virginia Traumbauer, the soloist, sang, "I Love You Truly" and "Because."

A reception followed the ceremony at the Bethlehem Elks Club. After a tour of the South the couple will reside after January 1, in Ispeming, Michigan.

The bride was graduated from Liberty High School and attended Bethlehem Business College. She was very active in the Junior Woman's Club having been the Ways and Means chairman this past year. Before her marriage she had been a buyer for the Laros Store.

The bridegroom was graduated from Lehigh University and had been a captain in the U. S. Air Force, returning recently from 28 months of overseas duty. After January 1, he will be affiliated with the Inland Steel Company in Michigan as a mining engineer.
