Action Plan, and Bethlehem's Environmental Advisory Council

“Bethlehem Backyards for Wildlife.”

If there was ever an intriguing name, there 'tis!

In posting chair Rothman's annual report last week, Gadfly said the Environmental Advisory Council was well represented in presentations at the December 3 City Council meeting.

Gadfly is not done with those presentations, no sir, he isn't.

Bethlehem Backyards for Wildlife is a subcommittee of the EAC.

December 3 was the first time Gadfly learned Backyards' history and gained a sense of what they do.

He was amazed.

Listen to team leader Martha Christine's report and share the amazement at everything these six people are doing: Christine, Roseann Amato, Jane Cook, Suzanne Drake, Christy Roydon, Elsa Stahl.

As a faithful Gadfly follower put it truly:

“Unsung contributors to both our community and achieving a better environment.”

It's Monday, December 9, do you know where your local Climate Action Plan is?
