

Jackson, Wilbur

Now a Corporal

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Jackson, 345 Spring Street, received a communication from their son, Wilbur Jackson, telling of his recent promotion to Corporal. He received his basic training at Camp Blanding, Fla., and at the present time is stationed with the Infantry at Camp Robinson, Ark. He was graduated from Liberty High School, 1942, and was formerly employed in the office of the Bethlehem Steel Company.
