

Wynne, James

Battle Victim

PFC. JAMES WYNNE

Pfc. James Wynne, Pen Argyl, Suffers Battle Wound

MAR 22 1945

Pfc. James Wynne, 30-year-old son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Wynne, Pen Argyl, was wounded in action while serving with the First Army, the early part of this month, according to word received in Pen Argyl by relatives. At present he is reported to be showing normal improvement, after being wounded in the back and chest, and is hospitalized.

He entered the service on Nov. 11, 1943, and received his basic training at Camp Blanding, Fla. He went overseas in June of last year.

He is a member of Lookout Volunteer Fire Company No. 1 of Pen Argyl.

March 22, 1945