

Kacsur, Thomas
Paul
George

Allentown Soldier
Reported Prisoner
Of German Feb't 25, 1944

Yesterday a War Department telegram sounded a note of hope for an Allentown family when Mrs. Thomas Kacsur received word that her husband, Thomas Kacsur, who on Jan. 13, was reported missing in the Italian theater of war, is now reported to be a prisoner of war of the Germans.

Mrs. Kacsur, the former Marjorie Ruff, resides with her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Kacsur at 918 North Penn Street, Allentown. A brother of Kacsur is in the Army, now stationed in New Guinea; another brother, Paul, employed in the advertising department of The Globe-Times, expects to leave for service in the United States Navy March 6. He has another brother, George, of Allentown.

February 25, 1944