

Curzi, Dewey

Curzi-Luzietti

At a ceremony performed in the College Hill Presbyterian church, Easton, Sunday morning at 9 a. m., Miss Inez Luzietti, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Luzietti, of 931 Tuttle Street, became the bride of Dewey Curzi, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph L. Curzi, of Martin's Creek.

The Rev. Richard E. Plummer officiated, performing the double ring ceremony. The church was decorated with gladioli and palms. Wedding music was provided by Charles Straub, organist.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Michael Luzietti. Miss Nara Luzietti, sister of the bride, was the maid of honor, and Mrs. Clara Stoker, another sister, was bridesmaid.

John Curzi, brother of the bridegroom, served as best man and Robert Stoker was usher.

The bride was attired in a gown of Spanish lace made princess style with bell sleeves, sweetheart neckline and long train. She wore a fingertip veil with a coronet of orange blossoms and carried a bouquet of gardenias and bouvardia.

The maid of honor wore an aqua chiffon gown and carried a colonial bouquet bouquet of talisman roses. Mrs. Stoker wore a pink chiffon gown and carried a colonial bouquet of LaFrance roses.

The bride's mother was attired in a navy blue dress with white accessories and wore a corsage of gardenias. The bridegroom's mother wore a black dress with white accessories and a corsage of gardenias.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bridegroom's parents. Decorations for the reception were white, aqua and pink. Guests were present from New York, Delaware, Easton, Phillipsburg, Nazareth, Philadelphia and Martin's Creek.

Following a wedding trip to Delaware the couple will reside in Delaware after July 18.

Mrs. Curzi was graduated from Phillipsburg high school and attended Churchman's Business College. The bridegroom was graduated from Easton high school and Pennsylvania State College. He is a member of Delta Sigma Pi Fraternity. At the present time he is on duty for the U. S. Navy as a Naval Inspector in New Castle,
