

Hoffman, Kenneth R.

PARTY GIVEN SOLDIER
HOME ON 'URLOUGH

Mrs. Elsie Hoffman, 719 Evans Street, entertained at a party Thursday evening in honor of her son, Pvt. Kenneth R. Hoffman, of 1072 Guard Squadron, Company B, Barracks 4, Wright Field, Dayton, Ohio, who was home on a two-day furlough. The young man received many gifts. Games were played and refreshments were served. Pvt. Hoffman returned to his station today.

Present at the party were Misses Eleanor Miller, Ruth Miller, Lizzie Heft, Dorothy Moffat, Elsie Hathazi and Margaret Kloe, Floyd Hoffman, Charles Weiner, William Lockard, Lloyd Hoffman, Andrew Varady, Lawrence Miller, Mrs. Elsie Hoffman, Mahlon Mills, Mr. and Mrs. John Hoffman and son, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Konva and son. 7 1943

January 8, 1943