Hale McMahan Chosen For V-5 Pilot Program

Lieut. Comdr. D. K. Hemmerly, director of Naval Officer Procurement, Philadelphia, announced today that Hale Baldwin McMahan, 101 Chestnut St., this city, has been selected for the March class of the Navy's V-5 Pilot Training program. Young McMahan will begin his Air Cadet's education with a year of college training. He will be following in the footsteps of his brother, Benjamin F. McMahan Jr., a lieutenant in the Patrol Boat Squadron.

Cadet McMahan was graduated from the Kent School in June, 1945, and has been attending Yale University.
