

Gadfly's roof isn't leaking — yet

The Bethlehem Gadfly George Floyd killing, Police July 18, 2020

Gadfly lives cozily nestled in the middle of a triple.

When his neighbor's roof leaks, he gets water.

Since there is no firewall in the open shared attic crawl space, if one neighbor has a fire, that fire will rise up to the attic and then down on Gadfly's side.

These facts were on Gadfly's mind as he posted thrice this morning before now.

And as he thinks about the missing Public Safety Committee meeting.

Catch Gadfly's drift?
