

Fox, George S.

OCT 23 1942

THE BETHLEHEM GLOBE-TIM

COMPLETE PRIMARY FLIGHT TRAINING—These two Bethlehem lads have their eyes on Naval aviation wings now that they have finished their primary flight training at the U. S. Naval Reserve flight training base in Philadelphia. They will be transferred shortly to the Naval Air Station at Corpus Christi, Texas, for three months advanced work with wings and commissions awaiting them. Left is Cadet George S. Fox, 23, son of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Fox, 441 Seneca Street; right, Cadet Charles G. Feist, 22, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Feist, 1321 Montrose Avenue. Fox graduated at Bethlehem High in June of 1937 and from Allentown Prep in 1938. He attended Muhlenberg College, was a member of Phi Kappa Tau, was active in R. O. T. C., National Guard, and held a private pilot's license. He enlisted in the U. S. N. R. in June of this year. Feist also graduated at B. H. S. in 1937. He attended Muhlenberg and was active in sports, winning his "M" in varsity basketball and baseball. He, too, held a private pilot's license. He enlisted in July of this year in the U. S. N. R.

—Official Naval Reserve photos

October 23, 1942