

Manning, Martin J.

Bath Soldier
Is Promoted OCT 6 1943

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Promotion of Technical Sergeant Martin J. Manning of Green Street, Bath, from the rank of Staff Sergeant, was announced here today at headquarters, Army Ground Forces, commanded by Lieutenant General Lesley J. McNair.

Sergeant Manning enlisted in the Army on March 3, 1942, and received his recruit training in the Infantry at Camp Croft, South Carolina.

Sergeant Manning, son of Mrs. Katherine Manning, was employed in civilian life as a payroll clerk and stenographer at the Nazareth Cement Company. He attended Bethlehem Business College.

Oct. 6, 1943