

Finn, Harry J.

Recuperating

OCT 3 1944

Pfc. Harry L. Finn, aboard an undisclosed troop ship sunk in New Hebrides, returned to the Deshon Hospital after visiting relatives and friends here.

In the service 29 months, Pfc. Finn has been overseas for 22 months and has spent six months recuperating in a hospital in New Zealand. He won the Infantry Combat Badge and the Good Conduct Medal. Pfc. Finn was employed by the Bethlehem Steel Company before entering the service.

October 3, 1944