

Seacrest, William G

Year In Service

Staff Sergeant William G. Seacrest, whose wife, the former Mrs. Vera Staley, of Oviedo, Fla., is residing with her husband's mother, Mrs. Ethel Seacrest, 453 Vine Street, has now served one year overseas in Sicily and Italy. He is attached to the 415th Night Fighter Squadron Aircraft of the Army of the United States.

Sergeant Seacrest, who recently visited Pompeii and Mt. Vesuvius in Italy, entered the service two years ago last December, in 1942. A year ago, April 19, he was sent overseas.
