

Jones, Charles G

Capt. Jones Made Major In Italy

MAY 31 1945

WITH THE FIFTH ARMY, Italy
—Charles G. Jones, Bethlehem, recently was promoted from captain to major while serving with Fifth Army in Italy.

He is now commander of a clearing company of the 310th Medical Battalion, serving the 85th "Custer" Infantry Division. Formerly he was a clearing platoon leader, collecting company commander and battalion staff officer.

Jones attended Susquehanna University, Selinsgrove, Pennsylvania, and Temple University Medical School, Philadelphia. He was a physician in civilian life and entered active service in May, 1942.

His wife lives at 723 Broadway, Bethlehem, and his mother, Mrs. Catherine Jones, in Paxtonville, Pennsylvania. Major Jones has a son, Charles G., Jr.

May 31, 1945